Winchester College

Winchester College's historic buildings and picturesque grounds on the edge of the South Downs National Park provide a substantial range of opportunities for professional film and photography shoots, including a diverse selection of historic and contemporary locations.

LOCATIONS

As a popular heritage filming location in the South of England with Tudor, Edwardian and Victorian architecture, Winchester College has previously been used as a venue for a broad range of productions, including The Crown, Les Misérables and Anatomy of a Scandal.

The College offers bespoke location agreements to suit all scales of production including day and night shoots, indoor and out. 11 acres of stunning gardens and grounds are available, including various stretches of the river Itchen, one of the most famous chalk streams in the world.

FACILITIES

Alongside filming venues, the College offers a broad range of versatile spaces suitable for use as unit/tech bases, green rooms, hair and make up and costume units. Capacity is suitable for housing the entire infrastructure of a film shoot, having previously accommodated casts and crews in excess of 300 people.
